

Curriculum

1. Description:

- This summer camp aims to raise awareness on animal welfare issues in our community and throughout the United States.
- This camp offers children the opportunity to mature, build on their love for animals, and understand the responsibilities and commitment involved in making sure pets live a long, healthy and happy life.

2. Objectives:

- Promote empathy toward pets and the humane treatment of all animals.
- Help children make the connection between animals and their own life experiences.

3. Themes:

- Safety and Animals
- Disaster Preparedness and Animals
- Kindness to Animals
- Health and Animals

4. Skills:

- Critical Thinking
- Problem Solving
- Leadership

5. Learning Method:

- Collaborative Learning
- Activity-Based Learning
- Experienced-Based Learning

6. Activities:

- Animal Care and Behavior Learning Activities
- Animal Welfare Projects
- Hands-on Interaction with Animals
- Arts and Crafts
- Multimedia Educational Games
- Outdoor Activities
- Discussions with Experts from animal welfare agencies.
- Field Trip to Joel Slaven's Professional Animals, located in Saint Cloud, FL. (Trainer of Seaworld's Pets Ahoy Show)